

Calling all artists, artisans and crafters Join Manitoba's newest market

Who? Calling fine artists, artisans, crafters and makers of beautiful and delicious things to join Holiday Alley – a festival of light, art, sound and creativity filling an entire block with good vibes and good food. You'll be in creative company all day long and into the night.

What? Holiday Alley Craft Market is an expansion of the wildly successfully Homes for the Holidays House & Heritage Tours (www.homesfortheholidaysredrivernorth.ca)

Where? Selkirk, Manitoba

When? Dec. 2, 2017, 10 a.m. to 8 p.m., are the craft market hours.

Why? It's a chance to showcase and sell your amazing hand-made and heart-felt work and food to an even wider audience. Expand the list of folks who already appreciate your talent. You will be part of an exciting day-long event to celebrate art and creativity.

Big WHY: Proceeds from Holiday Alley are shared with Homes for All, a new fund we created to support social and non-profit housing. Having a safe and warm place to call home is beginning of a lot of great things.

How Much Traffic? We sell 1,000 tickets to the house tours alone and the craft market is a stop on the tour. In addition, Holiday Alley is open to the public for free, driving even more traffic past your table.

How Much? The 3' x 8' foot tables are $50 for an early bird and $90 after September 30th.

Sounds right up your alley? Then join us by filling out the attached application form for this juried show and sale. Tell a friend. Share this letter.

Apply Today for the craft market. Deadline September 30, 2017
Early Bird Fee: $50 for 3' X 8' Table

Email info@holidayalley.ca or mail Holiday Alley / 224 Pacific Ave. Selkirk / R1A 0N7

For more information

Marlena Muir / 204.481.1038 / marlenamuir@outlook.com

Shirley Muir / 204.771.7523 / info@holidayalley.ca