

Calling all Artists, Artisans and Crafters Join one of Manitoba's newest juried markets on November 23, 2019!

Take Advantage of our Early Bird Registration!

....We'd love to see you there.

What is it?

Holiday Alley Makers Market launched in 2017 as an anchor event to Holiday Alley - an entire block of downtown Selkirk, Manitoba dedicated to art, sound, light and creativity.

Holiday Alley is free to the public and previous year's attendance ranged from 4,000-5,000 people on the street - driven by tons of media coverage!

What do market participants say?

"A great event!

Thank you for the invite, would love to come again!

You have an amazing group of volunteers who work very hard to make this event the success that it is. Kudos to you all!

The energy and friendliness of crafters and customers made the experience truly enjoyable.

I really appreciated that it was a juried show.

The promotion prior to the event was amazing, local newspaper, all the television promotion was really awesome."

When is the Holiday Alley Artists, Crafters and Makers Market this year?

Saturday, Nov. 23, 2019, 10 a.m. to 6 p.m.

Where?

Downtown Selkirk, Gordon Howard Centre.
